Biographical Note

Historical/Biographical Note

Sources:

Fisher, Harry. Comrades (Lincoln, Nebraska: University of Nebraska Press, 1998.)

Scope and Content Note

Series I, correspondence, contains Fisher's incoming and outgoing correspondence during his 18 months in Spain from March 1937 to September 1938. His letters are addressed to his family in New York including his mother, his sister Sal, brother-in-law Hy and his niece Louise. Fisher, who was present at many of the major campaigns of the war, chronicles these events in his letters and provides ample descriptions of aid raids and trenches, camp life, and the war-torn experience of the Spanish populace in cities and villages. Notable among the events he describes are the death of Commander Oliver Law (7/29/1937); air raids in Madrid (6/29/1937) and Barcelona (7/8/1938); the eve of the crossing of the Ebro (7/28/1938) and its aftermath (8/5/1938). Additionally Fisher notes visits by journalists and dignitaries including Joseph North, Josephine Herbst, Robert Minor, Norman Thomas. He also offers his impressions of International Brigade personnel including Commander Vladimir Copic and Political Commissar Steve Nelson (who was also Fisher's bunkmate).

Included among the incoming correspondence is a letter from Fisher's fellow alumni from the Hebrew National Orphan Home announcing the formation of the Buddy Fisher Committee of the American Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Battalion, established to render aid to Fisher and his comrades in Spain. Also included is a letter from Lincoln Brigade veteran Harry Nobel, written from New York (7/28/1938), which provides an account of the relief activities and news of old friends.

Series II, Artifacts, consists of a military belt with army pouch, and a military lighter.

Arrangement

Series I is separated into outgoing and incoming correspondence and arranged chronologically within each group. Series II artifacts are housed in a folder at the end of the collection.

Organized into 2 series:

I. Correspondence

II. Artifacts

Abstract

The Hornstein collection documents the work of a prominent Chaucerian and English scholar whose entire career developed at New York University. The collection contains Hornstein's research material on Chaucer's literature, including correspondence, bibliographical indexes, manuscripts, papers and articles.

Arrangement

Separated Material

There is no information about materials that are associated by provenance to the described materials that have been physically separated or removed.

Scope and Content Note

The Hornstein collection documents the work of a prominent Chaucerian and English scholar whose entire career developed at New York University. The collection contains Hornstein's research material on Chaucer's literature, including correspondence, bibliographical indexes, manuscripts, papers and articles.

Another important part of the collection documents Hornstein's teaching. The areas relate to classes taught at NYU and Linguistics and contain syllabi, notes, PhD exam lists and random corrected student papers. The classes she taught are ordered by number, and they vary from old and medieval english literatures and languages, to history of the English Language, to contemporary english literature. There are also some syllabi from colleagues. Of note in this section is the portion extensively dedicated to her professor and mentor Margaret Schlauch, also an NYU English scholar and Chaucerian. The second section of the material pertains to the study of language and linguistics beyond the limits of her teaching needs.

A large section of the collection (about 10 boxes) relates both to her academic research and personal interests. For example there are files on Authographs, Iconography, the Female Serpent, Israel, Folklore and Folktales, Medieval drama and Music, 15c Arthurian Saga, Zodiac, Bocaccio, Freud, Jung, Jack Kerouac and Dieting. It would be useful to look into these files, to double check for extra or missing material in the other sections. It is in a rather chaotic order and everything seems to have been saved. Finally, the last box of the collection contains Hornstein's personal notebooks, speeches, papers and published articles.

The Hornstein papers offers rich and extensive materials for Chaucerians, english medievalists and linguists. This collection would also be very useful for anyone interested in the history of NYU English Department.

Lillian Herlands Hornstein Papers

Historical/Biographical Note

Lillian Herlands Hornstein was born in Brooklyn, New York in 1909 and entered Washington Square College in 1925. She received her B.S. summa cum laude(1929), M.A. (1930) and her PhD. "with distinction" (1940) from New York University. Prof. Margaret Schlauch was her inspiration and favorite professor in the Medieval English Literature field. The topic of Prof. Hornstein's PhD thesis was a study of the sources of The King of Tars. She started as a graduate assistant in 1930 and became full professor in 1959. She retired as Professor Emerita of English in May, 1974. She received the "Great Teacher" award granted by the Alumni federation, in 1970, the W.S.C. Alumni Achievement award in 1973, and the NYU Presidential Citation, 1974. She was married to George D. Hornstein, Professor of Law at NYU.

Dr. Hornstein was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and of the consultative Board of the Modern Humanities Research Association, and was Chairman of Middle English at the Modern Language Association (1953-54, 1964-65, 1970). She was the President of the Academy of Literary Studies(1975-76), the Medieval Club of N.Y. (1963), the New York Council College Teachers of English (1950-51)and the Society for the Libraries of NYU She was also very involved in numerous NYU associations and committees.

Her publications show her wide interests in the field of literature. She compiled a Reader's Companion to World Literature(1956). She also participated in the Manual of Writings in Middle English (1968). She published her studies of the King of Tars in various literary journals. One of its versions, published in the PMLA, was voted one of the three best articles on literary criticism from the first 75 years of that journal. After she retired from NYU, she researched thoroughly Chaucer's Man of Law's Tale for the Chaucer Variorum.

Her contributions to society and academia are well accounted for in the Dictionary of American Scholars, Who's Who of American Women, Who's Who in World Jewry, Who's Who of Women in Education and the Dictionary of International Biography.
